Master Putting

This program will focus on five areas of improvement

Technique

Great putters have one thing in common, they have discovered what works for them, and they can repeat the motion

Discover how to read greens

Great putters are great green readers, we will give you the skills you need to be a great green reader

Distance control

Great putters are very skilled at controlling the distance that they putt, we will show you how to master this skill

Master holing out

Great putters are fantastic at holing putts consistently from close distance, we will ensure that you have the skills to become a master of these putts

Benchmark yourself appropriately

Great putters know the percentage values of predicted putts from certain distances, this 'dose' of reality helps them keep their expectations in check. We will give you all the data you need to benchmark yourself appropriately
